The Legend of Sleepy Hollow

Sleepy Hollow is a quiet, peaceful place next to the Hudson River in New York State.

The people in this town are the descendants of emigrants from Holland. They are farmers and they work with animals too.

The people in Sleepy Hollow are superstitious and they think that there are ghosts in the valley. They like telling stories about ghosts and witches.

There is an old school in Sleepy Hollow and it is far from the farmers' houses. There is one teacher in the school, his name is Ichabod Crane. He is tall and thin, his ears are enormous and his feet are big. Ichabod is ugly, but all the girls in Sleepy Hollow like him because he is very intelligent.

The families of Sleepy Hollow invite him to eat with them. Ichabod loves good food. He loves dancing and he sings very well too.
